

Photographic Resources

Transcript of mindmap from 27th October 2017

Paper

Books

- Heffers - photobooks conveniently on ground floor foyer, LHS
- Waterstones (2nd or 3rd floor) Wide range of titles
- Local libraries - Central library photography related books v limited
- Magazines

Huge range of titles, some interesting articles in addition to pages & pages of adverts and advertorial reviews of the latest camera/lense/gizmos

Digital

Magazines

Listing of online photography magazines:

- <http://www.world-newspapers.com/photography.html>

Range of magazines (approx 50 titles), including Amateur Photographer & Digital Camera World are available online through Cambs County Library Service:

<https://www.cambridgeshire.gov.uk/residents/libraries-leisure-&-culture/libraries/library-online/emagazine-service/>

Websites

- Suppliers & Retailers

It is worth looking at retailers & camera manufacturers' websites as they often have features & competitions, in addition to ramping their wares: eg

<http://www.parkcameras.co.uk>

<https://www.wexphotovideo.com>

Camera makers eg.

<http://www.olympusmag.co.uk/magazine.html>

- Cambridge in Colour
<http://www.cambridgeincolour.com>

Useful tutorials & reference material

- Digital Photography Review
<https://www.dpreview.com/>

Independent, thorough & authoritative product reviews

Photo sharing

- Flickr
- Instagram

Once registered you can use it as a reference database of photography in every conceivable genre, regardless of whether you upload any of your own photos onto the site. (NB it is optimised for smartphone & tablet usage; but can be easily accessed from PC/Apple computer.)

- Google Photos
- Facebook

Tablet & smartphone Apps

Apps that some members of our Forum have found useful include:

- TPE

- Posing app
- Rookie Cam
- Hyperfocal

Audio Visual

You Tube

- Tips & tutorials on almost anything
- Documentaries about photographers

TV

- “Britain in Focus” (broadcast earlier in 2017) Maybe still be available on I-Player?

Museums & Galleries

Science & Media, Bradford

- <https://www.scienceandmediamuseum.org.uk>

V&A

<https://www.vam.ac.uk/collections/photographs>

Natural History

<http://www.nhm.ac.uk/visit/exhibitions/wildlife-photographer-of-the-year-53.html>

Science Museum

- <https://sciencemuseum.org.uk>

National Portrait Gallery

- <http://www.npg.org.uk/whatson/twppp-2017/exhibition/>

Photographers' Gallery

- <https://thephotographersgallery.org.uk>

Central London gallery, permanent collection & exhibitions. Large bookshop.

Getty Images Gallery

- <http://www.gettyimagesgallery.com/>

Small “shop window” gallery, but huge, searchable archive of photos for sale.

Getting involved

Local Camera Clubs e.g.:

- <http://www.swaveseycameraclub.co.uk>
- <http://www.cambcc.org.uk>
- <https://www.facebook.com/CambridgeDarkroom>
- <http://roystonphotographicsociety.co.uk>

Zooniverse

Wide range of citizen science projects, including several wildlife related image analyses

- <https://www.zooniverse.org/projects>

Photoblogs

- At least two members of our Forum (Helen & Brian) publish blogs, so talk to them if you're interested