I panicked - and you sent me too many photos!

I decided to pick just 2 from everyone's contributions

- avoided similar subjects
- used my subjective judgement
- grouped roughly into categories

Architecture

Arrangements

Nature

Structures

One-off

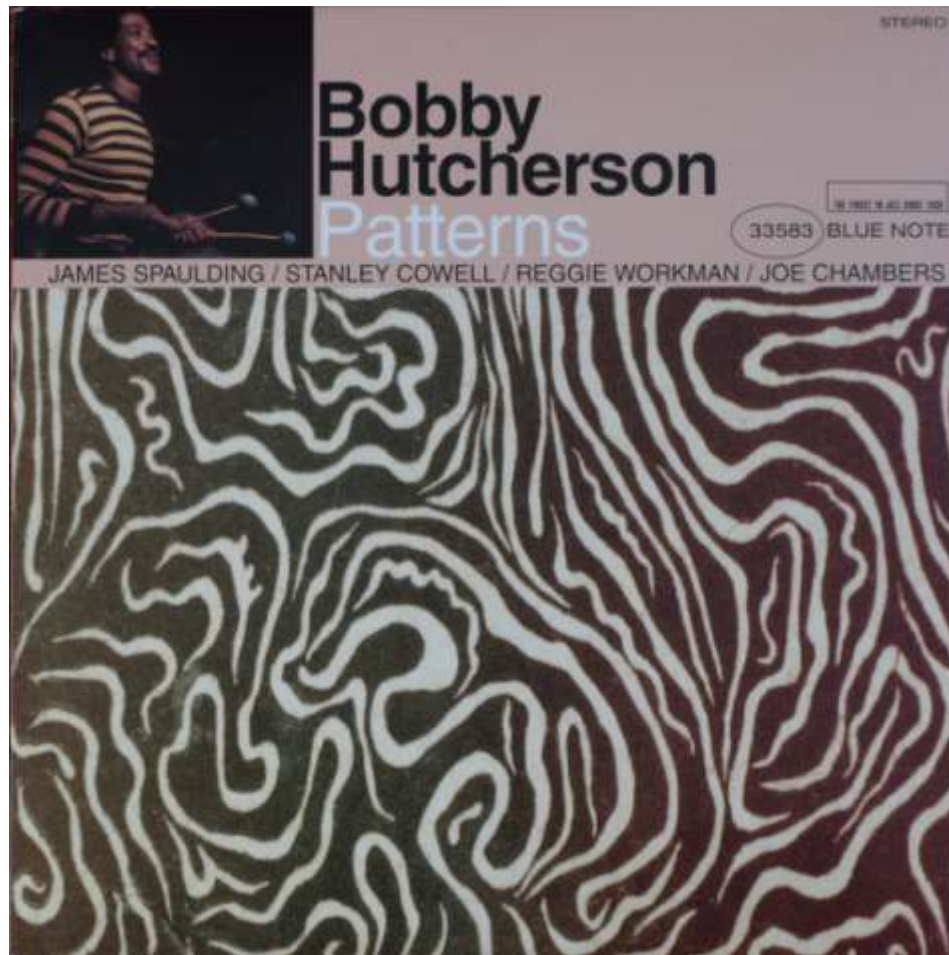

Why patterns?

- Look at things in a different way
 - Bring out hidden aspects
 - Humour
 - Visually appealing
- Human nature to seek structure

Stimulus

1 - One-off

Letter from home

Washday

Summer sun on the pool (after David Hockney?)
